

Katherine Fitting has lived in Park County full-time since 2004 but has been coming to the Fairplay area for recreation since childhood. She is a physician and ran the clinic in Fairplay for 10 years. She and her husband, Dale, have owned and operated The Hand Hotel, the Silver Scoop Creamery, and The Old Red Barn in Fairplay since 1995. The Fitting household also includes two dogs and eight rescued burros.
